The 5 Ws of Art: MILITARY WATCHTOWER

What did we learn about this object and how it was used?

Slides can be downloaded and used as worksheets.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Answer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What structure is this object meant to replicate?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What kinds of animals are depicted at the bottom of the object?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What are the figures at the top of this sculpture doing?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Are they holding anything?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
WHY?

Why was this object placed in a tomb?

What are the top 3 objects you would want replicas of in the afterlife?

1

2

3
Where was this sculpture made?

Provide three interesting facts about where this was made.

Fact 1

Fact 2

Fact 3

NOTE
You can do additional research for this activity.
WHEN?

When was this object made?

What dynasty ruled the region this object was made in?

Provide three interesting facts about where this dynasty?

Fact 1

Fact 2

Fact 3

NOTE
You can do additional research for this activity.
Spirit objects called “mingqi” were very popular in ancient China. There are many different types.

Use the internet to search for examples of mingqi. Then compare and contrast the two images.

Challenge!

How are these two images similar?

How are these two images different?